If music is no longer available (ie in private collection), no recording is possible.

The Society lists 233 works. There are, in addition, a number of works which bear no H numbers (designated by Holst's daughter, Imogen) and which may be regarded as youthful - for others to judge as to quality.

If anyone visiting our website is unable to find a recording of a particular work, send us an email (chairman@holstsociety.org) and we will try to assist.
